

Property Watch Information

Sign up today for Property Watch a new service from your Salt Lake County, Recorder's Office:

- Salt Lake County Recorder, Rashelle Hobbs, launched this valuable resource for Salt Lake County property owners to ensure that they have complete, timely information regarding their property record. This service will help to reduce title fraud, while protecting your property record.
- This is a free service which allows users to monitor any recorded changes (documents such as Liens, Deeds, Reconveyance Deeds, etc.) to a property.
- After subscribing for Property Watch, the Recorder's Office will send property owners who register for this service an email notifying them of any recent recorded documents on their property record.
- Information submitted to this service will not be distributed and will only be used to communicate Property Watch information.
- Signing up is quick and easy, follow the Property Watch link on the Recorder's Office website <https://slco.org/recorder/> and enter your name, property address and email address.
- Please contact the Property Watch email at PropertyWatch@slco.org or call (385) 468-8176 for live support.

Welcome to the Salt Lake County Recorder's Office Property Watch.
We are excited to introduce this new service being offered to Salt Lake County residents free of charge.
Signing up for the Property Watch will enable you to keep track of any recorded changes to your property.
The Salt Lake County Recorder's Office will send you an email, alerting you to any recorded documents. (I.e. Liens, Deeds, Reconveyance Deeds etc.)
Rest assured that your email address will not be distributed and will only be used to communicate Property Watch information.
